Your Money. Our Priority.

As your State Treasurer, it is my goal to keep Delawarean's informed about all of the great work that happens here in the State Treasurer's Office. We're confident that our new e-newsletter will do just that! In this new publication we'll spotlight some of our key initiatives we're working on, we'll discuss creative new ways to create efficiencies in State Government, we'll offer links to a host of fantastic financial resources, and we'll include a selection of relevant articles on a wide variety of topics that effect us all.

We hope you'll join us as we use the latest technology to create a more open Treasurer's Office and to more creatively communicate our efforts to strengthen Delaware's economy and invest in its future.

Sincerely yours,

Velda Jones-Potter
State Treasurer

Treasurer Announces Municipal Finance Forums – Fall 2009

Individuals, businesses, and governments alike are feeling the pinch of the downturn in our national and local economy. With this comes opportunity for innovation and creative solutions. For this reason, the State Treasurer's Office is once again coordinating quarterly 'Municipal Finance Forums' to create a platform for open discussions on the various topics concerning the economy and the State of Delaware.

New Credit Card Regulations and What They Mean For YOU!

The first phase of the Credit Card Accountability, Responsibility, and Disclosure Act of 2009 (Credit CARD Act), the result of a joint legislative effort involving the Federal Reserve, the Office of Thrift Supervision, and the National Credit Union Administration, went into effect last Thursday. This new bill has been hailed by many consumer rights advocates as among the most sweeping reforms the credit card industry has ever seen.
